

Christ the Evangelist: Kingdom of Heaven

In the first week readings, the week of Kingdom of Heaven, Our Lord Jesus Christ is speaking and teaching about the spiritual heart of the will and about how to practically behave spiritually with our spiritual neighbor. The prophecies complete this by reminding us of the 10 commandments and Gods will. In both of them, prophecies and gospel readings, we see that he/she who abide in Gods ways, will receive his/her reward from God.

In all these discussions, one notices 2 major things - among many others- in Jesus Christ the greatest Evangelist: 1) He was busy with Kingdom of Heaven and that reflected on His speech that whenever He opens His Holy mouth to speak, He can not but talking about His main concern: Kingdom of Heaven. In other words, He was focused on His mission! and 2) As the ambassador loves his/her country very much that he/she travels abroad, being stranger, to serve his/her country, and to attract people to love his/her country, so was our Perfect Evangelist Jesus Christ, He loved His Father house that He always lifted up the hearts of those who hear Him, and heeded them up towards the beauty of His fathers house. We saw this when He compared between the Heavenly treasure that lasts and the earthly treasure that vanishes. We saw this when He promise that who ever enters the Kingdom of Heaven, whatever he asks from the King of Kings, The Father the Pantocrator, he/she shall receive.

May God grant us to be always busy with Kingdom of Heaven, to remain focused on Him, and to behave in every single moment as ambassadors of Christ.
